BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

The Books of Remembrance are permanently displayed in the Crematorium Hall of Memory. They provide an inexpensive yet lasting record and memorial dedicated to your loved ones.

The volumes are a fine example of the bookbinders' craft and are designed to last indefinitely. They are bound in the finest vellum, lettered and tooled in gold bearing the Borough Coat of Arms.

An opening is provided for each day of the year, and the Book will remain open at the appropriate page, so that inscriptions may be seen on each anniversary for many years until the volume is filled, after which it will always be preserved and available for reference. Relatives and friends may have Memorial Inscriptions written in the Book of Remembrance, under the date selected (anniversary, birthday, etc., i.e. 'Standard Entry' lines 1 and 2 (overleaf). The first line is for the name and the others for dates, etc., and such epitaph for which space is available. Additional lines up to a maximum of eight may be inscribed at a further charge as shown overleaf.

Should an inscription be desired embodying a floral design, badge, coat of arms or other symbol, an entry of five lines (minimum) may be made, with additional lines (up to a maximum of eight) as shown overleaf.
