Wednesday, October 22
from 7.30pm

The council wants to know what you think about life in Queenstown ward.

Whether it's services like recycling, street cleaning, parking, education and housing where the council has a direct responsibility - or other areas like policing, public transport and the NHS - we want to make sure that we understand your priorities for your community.

The meeting will be chaired by council leader Ravi Govindia. Your three ward councillors, Marie Hanson, Nicola Nardelli and Sally-Ann Ephson will also be present along with leader of the opposition, Rex Osborn and senior managers from the main council services.

More affordable homes The council has unveiled plans to build 57 new affordable homes on the Savona and Patmore estates. These low cost rent council built properties will be prioritised for local people. In this corner of the borough more than 1,800 new affordable homes are in the pipeline and the Council is committed to increasing the number further (through its and private developer efforts).

Cycle friendly circus Work is now underway on providing a revamped and remodelled cycle-friendly roundabout at Queen's Circus, next to Battersea Park. Wider cycle lanes and new traffic signals that give cyclists priority will make it safer for them to use this busy roundabout, while other improvements will also make it much more pedestrian friendly.

Play area refurbished Local councillors have campaigned for the refurbishment of the Doddington's activity play area and this has led to a new basketball court being provided.

Crime levels down again Queenstown ward councillors and the local police SNT have worked together with residents to tackle crime and anti-social behaviour on the Doddington, Savona, Carey Gardens and Patmore estates. Street crime has fallen significantly through the use of CCTV and targeted local intelligence.

Cash for worthy causes Your Queenstown councillors continue to support grants to local community groups that have a positive impact on our neighbourhoods. Grants approved recently are supporting older people's lunch clubs and training courses. Councillors will continue to work with the many local groups that make a real difference to our community.

Jobs for young people QUEST (Queenstown Employment Support Team) is a new initiative from Wandsworth Council and supported by your ward councillors that aims to secure employment and training opportunities for 130 young Queenstown residents.

New dawn for Nine Elms With work underway at the power station, people moving into new homes at Riverlight and construction activity reaching fever pitch across Nine Elms, the future looks bright. In total around 16,000 new homes and 25,000 permanent jobs will be created in this part of Battersea in the coming months and years.

New look adventure playground More than £200,000 worth of new play equipment has been installed in Battersea Park. Queenstown councillors worked hard to get local children the exciting equipment they wanted.
