

Does the publication of the consultation in relation to the new emerging London Plan have any implications for their Employment and Industry Document and the on-going examination process.

Regards

Ken Stone

Inspector