If yes to either of the above, please give details below or write a separate note and attach to this form:

Please detail any music activities or courses that your child has participated in:

PLEASE NOTE:

- 1) Alongside their instrument study, all pupils at key stage 2 will take part in general musicianship, choir, ensemble classes and world music.
- 2) Secondary students may apply for membership of the borough's leading orchestras and ensembles and are offered the option of either individual or small group instrumental lessons. Theory and world music sessions are also available. Ensemble membership is compulsory for all secondary students attending the Academy.

We encourage pupils to study an orchestral instrument at the Academy as this offers more opportunities for ensemble playing and better progression routes through borough ensembles. The instruments we offer are:
