Protecting pubs

The council is on course to give an extra layer of protection to more than 100 local pubs in recognition of their historic, architectural or community value.

Town hall planners are now preparing to publish 'Article 4 Directions' to cover a total of 121 pubs which, if finally confirmed, means owners would need to apply for permission before knocking them down or changing them into something else like a supermarket or estate agent. Wandsworth is set to be the first council in the country to protect its local pub network on this scale.

Pubs in line for this extra layer of protection include The Alma, The Ship and The Cat's Back in Wandsworth, The Bricklayers Arms, Arab Boy and Railway in Putney, The Beehive in Battersea, The Trafalgar Arms, The Wheatsheaf and The Selkirk in Tooting and The Grove and The Regent in Balham.

Pub owners have been informed about the proposed change to their planning rights and they now have a chance to respond. The extra protection could come into force in September 2016.

Deputy council leader Cllr Jonathan Cook, said: "Wandsworth residents love their pubs but sadly we've lost some popular, thriving locals in recent years. Frustratingly the council has not had the real powers needed to stop this from happening.

"We've set out to change that and with the help of CAMRA and many local residents we're now close to achieving our goal. Our pubs are vital community assets and our planning system should recognise their special value and significance."

New flightpaths threat

Council leader Ravi Govindia updates reidents on the airport expansion depate:

"The UK Airports Commission has published its final report which recommends that Heathrow is given permission to build a new runway. The council wants to make sure Wandsworth residents understand how this project could affect them before the Government makes the final decision.

Heathrow's proposal involves building a third runway and creating a series of new flightpaths which fan out across London. They include low flying arrival routes over parts of Wandsworth which have never been affected by aircraft noise before. We can't tell you with certainty where the planes will fly as this vital information is being withheld. Instead only indicative routes (pictured above) have been published which show flights coming in over Roehampton, Putney, Earlsfield, Battersea, Wandsworth Town, Wandsworth Common and Tooting.

We do know that noise impacts will be compounded by the withdrawal of the half-day break from flights which is not part of the proposed three runway operation. We also know that the airport and the airlines are reluctant to ban night flights so we have to expect planes will continue to land from 4.30am each morning if the expansion plan goes ahead.

It's deeply frustrating that we cannot provide you with a more accurate picture of how Wandsworth will be affected by a three runway Heathrow. The Airports Commission has been studying the plan for more than two years but failed to pin down the critical issues of flightpaths and flight patterns.

The council is calling on the Government to reject the commission's deeply biased assessment and to insist that detailed flightpaths are published before a decision is made on which airport to expand.<sup>99</sup>

There's loads going on in the brighter borough to make cycling easier and safer

A new draft cycling strategy has been published, which proposes 22 targets for action, including

- A review of the borough cycle route network
- Improving the amount, type and location of cycle parkingFree cycle training

There is still time to comment on the draft plan. Visit www.wandworth.gov.uk/cycling

Wandsworth Council is running a design competition for a new pedestrian and cycle bridge to span the Thames between Nine Elms and Pimlico.

This is thought to be the first bridge in the centre of a major world city designed around the needs of cyclists and pedestrians. The images show the final four proposals, with the winner due to be announced later this year.

Find out more at www.nepbridgecompetition.co.uk.

A new cycle-friendly roundabout is now in use at Queens Circus in north Battersea.

This includes segregated lanes and separate traffic signals which keep cyclists apart from the main traffic flow at busy exits. Vehicles turning left to exit the roundabout are held while bikes are allowed to continue straight-on, reducing the danger of a collision.

Wandsworth Council and Transport for London have worked together on the project which is thought to be the first of its kind in London.

Another eleven 20mph zones have been introduced across the borough to improve safety for cyclists and pedestrians.

Councillors approved the zones after they were given the thumbs up by local people. Large areas of Wandsworth will be covered, including the Toastrack, the Southfields Grid, much of Nightingale Ward and the whole of Thamesfield Ward.

Park is one of capital's best

Battersea Park has successfully retained its coveted Green Flag award.

Described as "the jewel in the crown of London's parks", the award from leading environmental charity Keep Britain Tidy recognises and rewards the best parks and green spaces across the country.

A Green Flag is a sign to visitors that Battersea Park "boasts the highest possible standards, is beautifully maintained and has excellent facilities".

The awards are judged by open space experts, who volunteer their time to assess candidates against eight strict criteria, including horticultural standards, cleanliness, sustainability and community involvement.

Battersea Park's numerous attractions include a boating lake, sports courts, an Olympic-quality running track, bike hire, a popular children's zoo, lakeside restaurant, Victorian bandstand, tennis courts, all-weather floodlit sports pitches and an impressive peace pagoda - a unique London landmark complete with gold-coloured Buddhas overlooking the River Thames.

► For more information about the park and its attractions visit www.wandsworth.gov.uk/batterseapark

Reflecting the Wandle

Amateur photographers are invited to enter a competition to capture an aspect of the River Wandle. The winning images will be used on the new Wandsworth Valley Regional Park website.

There are four categories: Natural Wandle, Urban Wandle, Wandle Folk and Working Wandle. The closing date is October 16. Find out more at www.wandlephoto.com

Staff sharing plan moves forward

The creation of a single staff structure for Wandsworth and Richmond councils continues to progress smoothly.

The two councils have agreed a new smaller and leaner senior management team that will be jointly employed by both councils and managed by a single chief executive. This 30 per cent reduction in senior management is expected to deliver savings of around £1.5m a year.

The creation of a single workforce will give greater opportunities for reducing overheads, save back office costs and lead to better deals from suppliers. When it is fully operational from April 2017 it is expected to save taxpayers in each of the two boroughs up to £10m a year.

Both councils will continue to be separate sovereign bodies with their own elected councillors, cabinets and leaders. They will each maintain their own distinct identities and retain the ability to develop policies and priorities that matter to their residents and businesses.

The Leader of Wandsworth Council, Ravi Govindia, said: "The fact that we're delivering so much with Richmond in such a short period of time is testament to the strong relationship we've developed. It paves the way for us to continue protecting and delivering the important frontline services that our residents rely on by cutting back office costs, reducing overheads and saving public money."

Staff mutuals start work

Two new staff mutuals will be taking over the running of some town hall services from October 1.

More than 100 directly employed town hall staff along with more than 200 part-time and seasonal staff will form the new staff mutual Enable Leisure and Culture, taking over day-to-day responsibility for services like Putney School of Art, the Tooting Bec Common athletics track, the annual fireworks display in Battersea Park, the arts service, the events and filming team and the leisure and sport team. The company is applying for charitable status.

Meanwhile the council's Adult Learning Disability Day Service is becoming an independent charity called One Trust. Nearly 100 staff based at five locations round the borough will transfer across to the new staff mutual.

It promises a more responsive, flexible service while delivering savings to council-tax payers. Extra services are planned by One Trust, including weekend and evening respite for adults with learning disabilities and their carers.

The staff mutual model sees staff take over the management of services and run them in a leaner, more efficient and innovative way. Both contracts will last for four years.

Riverbus boost for Battersea

A brand new Thames riverbus passenger pier has been built at Plantation Wharf, north Battersea.

Thames Clippers services are expected to start stopping here in the coming weeks, providing more Battersea residents with a new route into central London. # Pub must be rebuilt

A developer who demolished a Victorian public house in Battersea without permission will be required to rebuild it brick by brick.

The Alchemist pub in St John's Hill was built in 1854 and was originally known as the Fishmongers' Arms. The developer took down the building without planning permission. He had not sought any consent to do this even though he was required to do so under planning rules because the building was located in a conservation area.

The council responded to this unlawful demolition by launching enforcement action. A subsequent attempt to obtaining retrospective permission has been rejected.

The developer will now be required to start work on rebuilding the pub and restoring it to its original condition.

See page 3 for other ways the council is protecting the borough's pubs.

Wandsworth's first compact starter homes approved

The council has approved plans for 63 compact starter homes which will be built on Mapleton Road in Wandsworth Town centre.

The new development is by innovative home builder Pocket. It will offer intelligently designed flats which make the best use of space, including floor-to-ceiling windows, under floor heating and built-in storage. Priority will go to local Wandsworth residents who can't afford to buy on the open market.

Council planning chairman Sarah McDermott said: "This will be the first development of this type in Wandsworth and we want more to follow. The new homes will be sold at 20 per cent below the market value and in some cases the discount will be even higher. I'm sure they will be a popular choice with local first-time-buyers."

► Find out more at www.pocketliving.com. Find out how to register for affordable housing options on pages 20-21.

How do you stay active?

The council is keen to find out how its residents aged 55 and over stay active.

Whether it's gardening, taking a leisure walk, joining a keep fit class or just doing the housework, the council wants to know what staying active means to you, the type of activities you would like available locally and any barriers that make it difficult for you to stay active. Take the survey online at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/stayingactive, or, if you would like a paper form, call 07590 598 816 or email rob@pressred.co.uk.

Help care

The Wandsworth Carers Centre is searching for volunteers to help people who have health conditions, Alzheimer's, a learning disability or mental health condition.

Volunteers would keep the person company and see to their needs so that their carer can have a break. You would need to help on a regular basis, support the person with activities they enjoy, such as board games, going out for a walk or shopping, and prompt them to eat or drink as necessary

You will receive full training and expenses and gain experience in social care. Call (020) 8675 0811 or 020 8877 1200, email philippa@wandsworthcarers.org.uk or visit www.wandsworthcarers.org.uk.

WANDSWORTH LEISURE CENTRES REDEVELOPMENTS

Wandsworth's Leisure Centres have benefited from £3.5 million of refurbishments works since the start of 2015. Balham, Latchmere and Tooting Leisure Centre are now completed with Putney Leisure Centre and Wandle Recreation Centre due to be finished in September 2015. The centres are owned by the council and managed by Places for People. We took a closer look at 3 of these centres.

Balham Leisure Centre

From January to June 2015 Balham Leisure Centre underwent a transformation. This Grade 2 listed building celebrated its 100th birthday in 2014, therefore restoring its character and charm was always part of the plan.

The swimming pool surround was retiled and new poolside sauna and steam cabins were built. A brand new dance studio was built along with two new treatment and therapy rooms. The existing dance studio was extended and the gym gained the latest fitness equipment. All the centres changing rooms were completely redeveloped and all finished to a high specification.

"@BalhamLC Great swim in refurbished pool #ILoveSW #LoveBalham"

f "The best leisure centre I have ever been to. Friendly and family feel certainly adds to why I have been a member for many many years. Recently refurbished studio room is fantastic."

Latchmere Leisure Centre

Latchmere Leisure Centre's great beach effect leisure pool opened to the public this Easter complete with a brand new changing village. As well as a complete refurbishment, the space has been reorganised to include additional group changing rooms and poolside screens to improve bather comfort. In short the whole changing experience at Latchmere has been improved tremendously.

The gym was extended and gained the latest cardiovascular equipment along with a great range of strength and functional training equipment. Latchmere also introduced a state-of-the-art fingerprint entry system for gym users to gain quick and easy access on each visit.

Lastly the male and female sports changing rooms received a complete refurbishment, as well as refurbishments to communal areas and circulation corridors.

The indoor cycling studio received a makeover and new treatment rooms and office spaces were built. During the first half of 2015 the changing village and the male and female sports changing rooms where completely redeveloped. The transformation was complete when new steam and sauna cabins were added to the poolside.

Tooting bangs on the drum

Tooting is buzzing with anticipation this month as major transport upgrades draw closer and a new wave of arts events and foodie festivals add more spice to the town centre. Here are just some of the highlights in store for this fast up-and-coming part of the borough:

Foodies paradise

Tooting is full of even more flavour after new eateries joined the town centre's famous culinary scene. Look out for

Kaspa's Desserts at 250 Upper Tooting Road,

Mud café at 141 Mitcham Road

Tangia kitchen and bar at 108 Mitcham Road

The Little Taperia at 143 Tooting High Street and

The Coffee Company of Tooting at 4 Tooting High Street

CrossRail 2

Looking much further ahead, Tooting Broadway is on the 'safeguarded route' for the CrossRail 2 tube line. This proposed new underground route could be built by 2030 and would run north into central London via Clapham Junction.

Foodie festivals

The all new outdoor Tootopia food festival takes place September 25 -27 and will see the town centre's award winning eateries take to the streets to showcase their delicious offerings. Food lovers should also look out for Foodival on September 12 – a celebration of home grown food at the Samaj Hall.

Pedestrian makeover

The busy junction outside Tooting Broadway Station is set for a pedestrian-friendly transformation.

Transport for London and the council will be commissioning specialist transport and urban planning consultants to prepare some designs which will be presented to local people later this year.

Pub life

The council took action to protect town centre pubs from the threat of redevelopment – see page 3. In addition, the newly-refurbished Kings Head and Trafalgar Arms now offer Tooting's beer lovers even greater choice.

Night Tubes

Night tubes will soon start running on the Northern line. This means trains will run into the early hours of Saturday and Sunday morning. This is great news for local people for local people trying to get home late and will be a major boost for the areas superb nighttime economy.

A new two year arts progamme – titled The Streets – kicked off in late July with Australian percussion star Ben Walsh performing on the roof of Tooting Broadway Station.

Recycle your way to £5k

Look out for your 'golden tickets' coming through your door soon – they could help you win £5,000.

Wandsworth people who recycle properly can enter a prize draw for a cash prize, plus the chance to nominate a community group to receive a  $\pm 2,500$  reward for their recycling efforts\*.

The Western Riverside Waste Authority (WRWA) processes the waste and recycling for four London boroughs, including Wandsworth, at Smugglers Way. It has been awarded a government grant to give people a bit of extra motivation to recycle correctly. Wandsworth has welcomed the Golden Ticket prize draw, because every extra item recycled saves council tax payers' money.

You'll get a book of golden tickets through your door in the next few days. Just put your contact details on one of the tickets and pop it in with your clean and dry recyclables in a clear recycling sack or orange-lidded recycling bank. You can pick up extra tickets at your local library, leisure centre or the town hall.

Tickets found by staff at the Smugglers Way recycling plant will be put into a prize draw. The first draw is on October 30, with three further draws in December, February and March.

* Terms and conditions apply. To be eligible for nomination, community groups must register in advance and confirm that they encourage their members, supporters and/or other local residents to recycle correctly.

Visit www.wrwa.gov.uk/goldenticket or call (020) 8871 2788 for full details, terms and conditions, to register community groups and for details on how to recycle correctly.

People who grow and cook food to benefit their community are invited to enter the inaugural Mayor of Wandsworth's Grow Wandsworth Awards.

The awards have been set up by the mayor, Nicola Nardelli, to recognise projects that bring people together to produce healthy, fresh, local food. They are open to individuals and to community groups.

"I believe it's important to realise the connection between growing and cooking, and that growing food for yourself and your community can be simple, fun and enormously rewarding. You don't necessarily need a lot of space and you will gain a much greater understanding of how to cook and eat healthy food," said Cllr Nardelli.

There will be four categories:

- Creative Spaces Awards searching for creative ways of using our urban landscape for community growing.
- Sunshine Awards celebrating the ways people have brought a bit of sunshine into the lives of others through community growing.
- Young and Old Awards celebrating food growing which brings together people from different generations.
- From Patch to Plate Awards celebrating projects which grow food and go on to make it into something special for sharing with others.

You can either enter yourself or your organisation, or you can nominate another person or group who you think has contributed to community food growing in the borough.

All entries must include visual evidence and written explanations. The closing date for entries is September 30.

For full details of how to enter, visit www.wandsworth.gov.uk/growwandsworth, email pbattista@wandsworth.gov.uk or call (020) 8871 6044

New way to pay

Paying for parking in Wandsworth has become easier with the introduction of new machines that accept credit and debit cards.

The council has replaced 140 coin-operated pay and display machines with new ones that accept cards only. More machines will be replaced from this month and when this phase is completed a quarter of the borough's machines will be cashless.

The machines have large colour screens with step-by-step instruction diagrams, and if you don't have a card on you there will still be coin-operated machines nearby.

As well as making it easier to pay, the new machines will mean fewer machines are vandalised.

Regular users may want to join Parkmobile, which means you can pay via your mobile phone without needing to use a machine at all. To find out more and register visit www.parkmobile.co.uk or call (020) 3003 2523.

Launching Round 2 of the Wandsworth Grant Fund

The second round of the Wandsworth Grant Fund is open for applications from September 2.

The Wandsworth Grant Fund replaced Wandsworth's Big Society Fund, various arts grants, the Youth Service Community Grant, the Children and Young People's Plan Small Grant and the Wandsworth ECO Fund.

People can now apply to just one council team, rather than across several council departments, so cutting down on red tape.

Round 2 will open for applications on 2 September with a deadline of 2 November. Applications are invited under one or more of the following themes:

- Arts and Culture
- Environment and Attractive Neighbourhoods
- Children and Young People
- Citizenship and Civic Engagement
- Achieving Aspirations and Potential
- Health and Well being

Ward councillor acknowledgment of each application is required and specialist council officers evaluate each application. Applicants will find out on January 26 2016 if they have been recommended for a grant award.

Wandsworth Gets Results

Wandsworth is committed to being an Open Council, making it easy for residents to find out how we spend your money and how good we are at delivering services. ### Are we making Wandsworth an attractive, safe, sustainable and healthy place?

Serious acquisitive crime rate per 1,000 population (includes residential burglary, motor vehicle crime and robbery)	19.43	16.27	1
Number of Anti-Social Behaviour-related calls to the police per 1000 population	39.19	28.91	1
Violence with injury per 1,000 population	4.90	6.56	×	This recent increase in orime is mirrored across all London boroughs and is widely acknowledged to be due to a change in crime recording techniques. However, despite the increase, Wandsworth is still below the London average in terms of number of offences, and the 4th lowest in Inner London. Wandsworth also remains the safest inner London borough for overall crime.
Household waste recycled, composted or reused	20.4%	19.6%	×	Nationally levels of recycling have slowed. A new, externally funded, Charlie & the Chocolate Factory style "Golden Ticket" recycling incentive scheme has been launched. The viability of providing a garden waste composting service at no cost to the Council will also be re-examined along with options for a food waste service.

Are we promoting health and wellbeing for all adults with personalised and preventative care and support for adults in need?

Job Seekers Allowance claimant rate	2.5%	1.8%	1
Number of problem drug users leaving treatment having completed treatment	74	51	×	Although this figure has declined, this is in line with a fall in the number of drug users who meet the criteria. Wandsworth continues to work to reduce the number of drug users in the borough.
The percentage of eligible people offered an NHS Health Check in Wandsworth	24%	30.6%	1	Every year we aim to deliver NHS Health Checks to at least 15% of those eligible. This year the number of people eligible in Wandsworth increased slightly, but we still exceeded our 15% target by inviting almost 20,000 people for their Check and delivering nearly 10,500 Checks – an uptake rate of 53%.
Percentage eligible people who have received an NHS Health Check	18%	16%	×	This is another good year for the Health Checks service – we've met our targets for all of the past six years and we've been recognised nationally as being one of the top performers in the country. We are above the London and national averages on all counts – invitations, delivery and uptake rate.
Number of people quit who quit smoking through the smoking cessation service	1,530	1,570	1
Percentage of clients who receive Direct Payments to help them pay for and manage care services themselves	17.3%	21.0%	1
Rate of admission of older people (65+) into residential and nursing care per 100,000 population	521.6	464.6	1
Average length of stay in bed and breakfast accommodation (weeks)	11	15	×	The increase in 2014/15 was due to higher levels of homelessness and admissions into temporary accommodation during the year.
Number of private sector dwellings made decent	253	261	1

Estate upgrade plans on track

The council is moving ahead with plans to rebuild parts of the Winstanley and York Road estates in Battersea, and the Alton estate in Roehampton.

The projects involve replacing hundreds of outdated postwar properties with high quality new homes, built to modern design standards. Every council tenant and owner occupier living in the outdated blocks is being offered one of the brand new homes.

Hundreds of additional properties will also be built on the estates, including more social rent and affordable homes for local families on lower incomes. Improved parks, community centres, libraries and sports facilities are also part of the plans.

Rate your broadband

The council wants local people to rate the speed and quality of home broadband services across the borough.

Recent research has revealed inconsistencies in local internet speeds and significant 'not spots' where no high speed fibre is available. The results of the survey could be used to lobby for new investment in Wandsworth's broadband infrastructure and to secure a better deal for local consumers.

Ravi Govindia, council leader, said: "The council has an important role to play in pinpointing the weak spots, demonstrating local demand and convincing the industry to prioritise investment in our borough."

The survey asks residents to rate their current internet service in terms of speed, reliability and value for money. A separate survey for businesses is also underway.

Take the survey at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/broadbandsurvey.

Owning your first home

Hundreds of new affordable homes are being built in Wandsworth and many are available right now. If you're a council tenant or a first-time-buyer who can't afford to buy on the open market then our dedicated home ownership team could help you get a foot on the ladder.

The best way to find out about your options is to come along to the Affordable Housing Day on Thursday 22 October at the town hall. There will be free information and expert advice on the different schemes available, like Shared Ownership and Right to Buy. You can also get a sneak preview of the new homes being built across Wandsworth and get your application started.

If you can't make our open day then these pages offer a quick guide to some of the help available and the affordable homes now on sale. If you want more information about any of the schemes listed below visit www.wandsworth.gov.uk/homeownership or contact the homeownership team at housesales@wandsworth.gov.uk or (020) 8871 6016.

Help for first-time-buyers

Shared Ownership

If you can't afford to buy your first home on the open market then Shared Ownership could be the way to get your foot on the ladder.

This scheme enables you to buy a share of a new property that you can afford, typically using your savings as a deposit and a conventional mortgage. You then pay rent on the share of the property you don't own. This means you can buy with a relatively small deposit and mortgage. You can also gradually buy-up more of your home if you can afford it, so you end up owning the whole property and paying zero rent.

To see if you qualify for Shared Ownership in Wandsworth fill out the online form at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/homeownership

Maria's Shared Ownership story

Local resident Maria Golasowska bought a share of her apartment at Battersea Reach from Notting Hill Housing last year. She said:

"Notting Hill Housing has provided me with an opportunity to find a beautifully designed flat at an affordable price so I am really thankful. With only a short walk to Wandsworth High Street and Battersea Park, you are never short of something to do."

Help for council tenants

Your Right to Buy

Qualifying council tenants have the right to buy their own home with a maximum discount of £103,900 off the market price. The funds raised through Right to Buy sales will continue to be used to pay for new affordable housing options for other local people.

Read our full information booklet at: www.wandsworth.gov.uk/homeownership or contact the team at email housesales@wandsworth.gov.uk or call (020) 8871 6016

Right to Buy Mobility Grant

This scheme gives grants of up to £30,000 to eligible tenants who qualify for Right to Buy but are unable to purchase their council property. This grant must be used towards buying a home on the open market and can be used to top-up our successful Home Purchase Grant Scheme (see below).

House Purchase Grant

This scheme gives council tenants a grant to help them buy a home of their own anywhere in the UK or European Union if they give up their current property so another local household can move in. The grant can also be used to adapt an existing UK property or as a deposit towards a Shared Ownership property.

Tenants who give up a one-bed council home could be eligible for up to  $\pm$ 50,000. The maximum grant for a two-bed or larger is  $\pm$ 80,000.

Five self-help tips to stop smoking

- Think positive: you may have failed in the past but this time you can succeed.
- 2 Make a promise, set a date and stick to it.
- 3 Watch what you drink. Studies show that fizzy drinks, alcohol, cola, tea and coffee all make cigarettes taste better, so avoid them.
- 4 Identify the times and situations when you crave cigarettes and try and distract yourself.
- 5 Make a list of reasons to quit. Keep reminding yourself why you gave up.

300 local jobs and counting

The council's Work Match local recruitment team has now helped over 300 unemployed Wandsworth residents begin a new career.

The team is currently on the look out for new starters in retail, construction, childcare, hospitality and many other industries. They can provide pre-employment training to get candidates ready for work and specialist courses to provide vital entry qualifications.

They also offer support to create winning CVs and provide interview coaching.

Ravi Govindia, council leader, said: "The local jobs market is in great shape but we want to ensure it's our residents who secure the valuable new starter roles local businesses create. That is where our superb Work Match team comes in. They link local people to local opportunities, giving Wandsworth candidates a vital edge.

"We're delighted over 300 people have taken advantage of their superb service so far and that so many businesses are now using Work Match to help them find the staff they need to grow and prosper. If you're looking for a job, or new staff, get in touch with the team today."

More school choice for parents

A brand-new primary school, Floreat, opens its doors this month.

Floreat Wandsworth will open in Garratt Lane, Earlsfield, providing an extra 420 places to children of all backgrounds and abilities in this part of the borough.

Meanwhile Mosaic School is moving into its new building in Roehampton Lane, with space for another reception class. The school, previously housed in temporary accommodation in Wimbledon, has been judged outstanding following its first ever Ofsted inspection. The inspector praised the school's leaders and governors in 'establishing a school community in which pupils of different faiths and cultures embrace their differences.'

Extra secondary places are also available at Harris Academy, Battersea, which is increasing to six forms of entry, and Saint John Bosco College, which is moving to its brand-new home in Parkham Street, Battersea at the end of September and will increase to seven forms of entry.

Many borough schools will be holding open days to prospective parents over the coming few weeks.

Find out more at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/admissions.

Mosaic head teacher Kate Baum and students admire a model of the new school.

The £40m rebuild of Tooting's Burntwood School has been shortlisted for this year's RIBA Stirling Prize.

The school will find out next month if it has won in the competition to find the building that's judged to have "made the greatest contribution to the evolution of architecture over the past year".

The school has already won two major design awards. In March it won a coveted Civic Trust Award while earlier this month it followed that up with a top prize in the 2015 New London Architecture (NLA) Awards

Facing up to your feelings

Often men grow up believing "big boys don't cry". But how unhealthy is it to bottle up emotions?

Men are three times more likely to die by suicide than women, yet we know they are far less likely to use mental health services freely available to them here in Wandsworth. Stress, loneliness, major life events and drink and drug misuse can all contribute.

Nearly all men will need some help during their life to keep their mental health on the right track - sometimes chatting to a friend, a partner or even your GP can be enough to stop things spiralling.

Where to get help

Organise an appointment with your GP. They can provide you with the help and guidance needed to get you back on the right path or refer you on for further support.

Big White Wall is a safe anonymous online community of people who are anxious, down or not coping, who support and help each other by sharing what's troubling them, guided by trained professionals. www.wandsworthiapt.nhs.uk/partner/ big-white-wall

Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) is a talking therapy that can help you manage your problems by changing the way you think and behave. If you think you could benefit, you can refer yourself to this programme at www.wandsworthiapt.nhs.uk/about-us

Ray's story

For eight years Ray rarely left the house and didn't know whether it was Monday, Tuesday or Christmas Day. He contacted the Age UK Wandsworth Be-a-friend service which provides support and companionship and found a reason to get out of bed in the morning. Visit www.ageuk.org.uk/ wandsworth/our-services/ be-a-friend-service

Nassir's story

Nassir experienced bullying, racist attacks and saw his family break apart at a young age, but it was injuries during his sporting career that led to a battle with depression that lasted two years. Through the support of friends and community leaders, Nassir overcame his depression and the experience gave him a passion for psychotherapy. He has passed a family therapy course and wants to help other Wandsworth people.

Stay protected this winter – Get a FREE flu jab

Anyone can catch the flu and it can be a really serious illness for some. Even those who had a flu jab last winter need another one this year to stay protected.

People living in Wandsworth who are vulnerable and at increased risk of complications from flu are being urged to protect themselves and their family with a free flu jab.

The flu vaccination will be offered FREE of charge to people aged 65 years and over, people under 65 who have long term medical conditions, people living in long stay care facilities, pregnant women, children aged 2 to 4 and those in school years 1 and 2 and carers of an older or disabled person.

You can arrange for your vaccination through your GP or local pharmacy; it's free because you need it.

Frontline health and social care workers are also encouraged to get a free jab to protect themselves and those they work with.

Wandsworth Council is working with the NHS and local pharmacies to make sure people at most risk from flu get the free jab. For more information on flu and the flu vaccine check out: www.nhs.uk/flu

GOLDEN YEAR FOR LIBRARY SERVICE

This year the borough's mobile library service is celebrating half a century of helping the borough's housebound.

From 1965 the service made fortnightly visits to all 'known incapacited people' reported by the Welfare Service, plus old people's homes and the prison.

All this was with just one van and one librarian, although the borough librarian's annual report for that year warned that if the service became any more popular, 'it will be necessary to add another van and librarian'. The van, and the first librarian, Don Wheeler, are picture here, along with users of the service in 1967.

The service is still going strong, and the team is happy to visit older or disabled people or carers, and can visit on a temporary basis to people recovering from an operation or an accident.

There is no charge for the service. To find out more call 020 8877 1742 (choose option two) or email hdls@gll.org

Be a mould-buster

As autumn approaches Wandsworth's public health director Houda Al-Sharifi is advising residents on the simple steps we can all take to avoid mould at home.

She said: "In the vast majority of cases mould is caused by the build up of condensation which is entirely preventable. I would urge people to follow these simple steps to nip any potential problems in the bud."

- Ensure air can circulate throughout your home and can escape to the outside open windows if necessary
- Do not block vents or chimneys
- Always allow steam generated in your bathroom or kitchen to escape outside open windows or use extractors
- While steam is being created close internal doors to prevent it spreading to other rooms
- When cooking cover pans and do not leave kettles boiling
- If possible dry washing outdoors, or in a bathroom with the door closed and window open
- Keep your home well heated. If you can't afford a suitable heating system or insulation a grant may be available. Visit https://climateenergy.co.uk or call 0800 358 6668.

If you already have mould, there are ways to treat it.

- Wipe down walls and window frames with a fungicidal wash
- After treatment, redecorate using a good quality anti-fungal paint to help prevent mould from recurring.

If you still have a mould or damp problem after following these steps, contact the council's private housing team on www.wandsworth.gov.uk/privatehousing/ dampandmould or if you're a council tenant, contact your estate manager.

Don't be rushed, don't be hushed, stop scams

Nearly half of people in the UK have been the target of a scam. That means up to 150,000 people in Wandsworth have lost hundreds, sometimes thousands, even hundreds of thousands of pounds. The truth is – with reporting levels as low as five per cent for some types of scams – we don't really know.

At Citizens Advice Wandsworth we want local people to expose scams and help stop more people from falling prey to clever cons.

Scams come in every form, from doorstep double glazing sales to online investment and pensions offers. People may be targeted with 'vishing' calls where a fraudster impersonates their bank to collect their bank details, or by bogus companies offering computer services. Online scams include dodgy job adverts and offers for goods and services, while mail scams may ask victims to pay a fee in order to claim their winnings from a prize draw they haven't entered. Our advice is that if an offer sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Scams thrive on silence. Fraudsters know that victims are often too ashamed to share what happened to them, meaning that scams can continue to spread unchecked. We're urging people to lift the lid on scams and start talking about suspicious email, junk mail, online ads or door-to-door sellers operating in their area.

When you receive an unsolicited approach or when looking for goods or services: don't be rushed and don't be hushed. If you're contacted out of the blue be on your guard, and never give your bank details out unless you are certain

YOUR CHANCE TO WIN E5,000

when you Recycle Right

IN THE Golden Ticket Recycling Prize Draw

To enter the £5,000 Golden Ticket prize draw, just fill out a Golden Ticket and pop it in your clear recycling sack or bank along with the clean and dry items listed opposite.

LDENTROS

You can submit a Golden Ticket each time you fill a clear sack or use your recycling bank. But remember, only tickets found with the correct recycling items at the recycling plant will be entered into a draw. So the more you recycle the correct materials, the more chance you have of winning. The winner will also be invited to nominate a local community group* to receive a £2,500 cash prize.

A book of golden tickets will be coming through your door in the next few days and you can collect more from your local library, leisure centre or the Town Hall reception or visit wrwa.gov.uk/GoldenTicket to print your own.

The first draw will take place on 30th October 2015 with further draws taking place up until March 2016.

Good Luck!

*To be eligible community groups must meet the competition criteria including a clear commitment to encouraging recycling. Each £2,500 community reward prize can be divided between more than one local group.
