for SEND

Does your child or young person have special educational needs or a disability (SEND)?

Do you need information, advice and support on:

- How education, health and social care services can help your child or young person?
- Deciding on which nursery/school/college for your child and young person?
- What to do if you are worried about your child's progress at nursery/school/college?
- What to do if you do not agree with a decision made about your child's or young person's education, health and or social care?
- Understanding letters, forms or reports to do with your child's or young person's SEND?
- Preparing for a meeting about your child's or young person's SEND?

If yes, please contact us
