[Ch. LXXXVI.] The Metropolitan Commons [36 & 37 VICT.]
Supplemental Act, 1873.

A.D. 1873. And whereas the exception referred to in the first herein-before recited agreement was an exception out of the agreement for sale and purchase therein contained of a piece of land and certain cottages not forming any part of the commons or waste lands of the said manor, and such land and cottages were excepted from the conveyance made by the said indenture of the 17th day of December 1868:

And whereas the stipulations authorised by the herein-before recited articles of agreement of the 10th day of July 1868, as modified or explained in the said indenture of the 31st day of May 1869, endorsed on the said indenture of the 17th day of December 1868, are to the effect set forth in the schedule to this scheme:

And whereas the commons or waste lands belonging to the said manor are delineated in a plan deposited with the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, and therein edged with green:

And whereas it is intended that the Metropolitan Board of Works (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") shall carry into effect the said agreement of the 25th day of June 1869, and take a conveyance to the Board of the said manor and premises thereby agreed to be sold, and shall acquire all estates, interests, and rights of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting the said commons or waste lands, making or providing compensation for the same (if necessary), as provided by the 15th section of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866. Now it is proposed and provided as follows:

1. From and after the completion of the said purchase by the Board, the commons or waste lands delineated in the said plan, and therein edged with green (in this scheme referred to as "the common"), shall for the purposes of this scheme be regulated and managed by the Board.

2. The powers of the Board generally, as to appointing or employing officers and servants and paying them under the general Acts applicable to the Board, shall apply to all such persons as in the judgment of the Board may be necessary and proper for the preservation of order on, and the enforcement of byelaws with respect to, the common or recreation ground, and otherwise, for the purposes of this scheme; and the Board may make rules for regulating the duties and conduct of the several officers and servants so appointed and employed, altering such rules as occasion may require.

3. The Board may drain, plant, ornament, and improve the common as may be necessary, and for the purpose of preserving the turf and grass may inclose by fences for short periods such portions as may require rest to revive the same, and for the further protection of the common may put up a post and chain defence against the straying of cattle along such portion of it as is marked by a dotted line in red on the said plan. No house or any other buildings shall be erected on the common, except such lodges or other buildings as may be necessary for the maintenance or management of the said common or recreation ground. The Board may from time to time erect on the common such lodges and other buildings as may be necessary for the maintenance or management of the said common or recreation ground.

4. The Board shall frame byelaws and regulations for the prevention of nuisances and the preservation of order on the common or recreation ground, and particularly for preventing the deposit of rubbish on, and the illegal taking, cutting, felling, and sale of turf, sods, bog-earth, gravel, sand, loam, clay, gorse, furze, fern, brushwood, trees, and the like, from the common or recreation ground: Provided that all such byelaws made by the Board shall be in writing under their seal. And the Board may by any such byelaws impose upon offenders against the same such reasonable penalties as they shall think fit, not exceeding the sum of 5*l.* for each offence, and in case of a continuing offence a further penalty not exceeding the sum of 40*s.* for each day after written notice of the offence, and the Board may alter or repeal any such byelaws, and may make any such other byelaws as may from time to time appear desirable: Provided always, that all byelaws imposing any penalty shall be so framed as to allow of the recovery of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty: Provided always, that no such byelaws shall be repugnant to the laws of England or the provisions of this scheme, and no such byelaws shall, as against any person entitled to any estate, interest, or right of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting the common which shall not be purchased or acquired by the Board under this scheme, operate or be construed so as to take away or injuriously affect such estate, interest, or right, and no such byelaws shall be of any force or effect unless and until the same be submitted to and confirmed by Her Majesty's First Commissioner of Works for the time being, who is hereby empowered to confirm or disallow the same, as he may think proper: Provided that any certificate of confirmation purporting to be signed by the First Commissioner of Works for the time being shall be primâ facie evidence of such confirmation in all courts and places whatsoever: Provided also, that no such byelaws shall be confirmed unless notice of intention to apply for confirmation of the same shall have been given in one or more of the London daily newspapers one calendar month at least before the making of such application; and for one calendar month at least before any such application a copy of the proposed byelaws shall be kept at the office of the Board, and be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of any metropolitan ratepayer without fee or reward, and the clerk of the Board shall furnish every such ratepayer who shall apply for the same with a copy thereof, or of any part thereof, on payment of 6*d.* for every one hundred words contained in such copy.

5. All byelaws made by the Board in pursuance of this scheme shall be printed, and shall be sold to any person who may apply for the same at such price, not exceeding 1*s.* per copy, as the Board may determine.

6. The Board shall be at liberty to receive and apply for the purposes of this scheme, or any of them, any subscriptions or donations applicable thereto respectively that may come to their hands.

7. The purchase and other moneys which shall become payable under the said agreement of the 25th day of June 1869, and all other compensation which shall become payable under this scheme, and all expenses which have been already incurred by the Board in relation to this scheme and the memorial for a scheme, and all costs and expenses which shall hereafter be incurred by the Board in or about the execution of this scheme, shall be deemed to be expenses of the Board in the execution of the Metropolis Management Acts, and be raised accordingly.

8. All the powers of the Board as to borrowing contained in the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and the Metropolis Management Amendment Act,

[Ch. LXXXVI.] The Metropolitan Commons [36 & 37 VICT.]
Supplemental Act, 1873.

A.D. 1873. 1862, as varied by "The Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Acts, 1869 to 1871," shall apply to this scheme, but the total amount borrowed for the purposes of this scheme shall not at any time exceed 20,000*l.*, but such sum shall be in addition to any sums which the Board are, under the powers of the said Acts, now authorised to borrow.

9. Any penalty imposed by or under the authority of this scheme, or any byelaw made under this scheme, may be recovered, together with the costs of the proceedings, in such manner and with such remedies, by distress or otherwise, as are given in the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same; but all proceedings for the recovery of a penalty incurred under the provisions of this scheme, or any byelaw made under this scheme, shall be had or taken by the Board; and the penalty recovered shall be paid to the Board and shall be applied for the purposes of this scheme.

10. No proceeding touching the conviction of any offender under this scheme, nor any order or other matter or thing whatsoever made, done, or transacted in or relating to the execution of this scheme, shall be vacated, quashed, or set aside for want of form.

11. The trustees for the poor of the parish of Streatham, the devisees of the late Mr. George Phillips, Mr. Samuel Martin, and the trustees of the will of Robert Brown Russel, deceased, claim to be entitled to rights of common of pasturage over and upon Tooting Beck Common. The Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, claim to be entitled to the soil and herbage of a certain portion (about 3 roods) of the land included in this scheme, and Mr. John Kymer claims a certain small strip.

This scheme affects the several rights and interests in, over, and upon Tooting Beck Common by conferring on the Board power to purchase the same compulsorily, with a view to their absolute extinction.

The trustees for the poor of Streatham consent to the scheme provided compensation be given for any rights taken away or prejudicially affected by it. The Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Emmanuel College, Mr. John Kymer, the devisees of the late Mr. George Phillips, and the trustees of the will of Robert Brown Russel, deceased, do not consent to the scheme. Mr. Samuel Martin does not oppose the scheme.

12. Printed copies of this scheme shall at all times be sold at the office of the Board to all persons desiring to buy the same, at a price not exceeding 2*s.* 6*d.* each.

The SCHEDULE above referred to,

1. In the event of the whole of the commons or waste lands belonging to the manor not being given or dedicated to the public as a common or recreation ground, under the provisions of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866, or any other Act of Parliament, and in such way that no part thereof be at any time, without the consent in writing of the said Charles Telford, Susanna Ommaney McTaggart, Sarah Church, and Eliza Kinder, their respective executors, administrators, or assigns, sold or let on building or any other lease for the purpose of defraying the expenses of making or maintaining the said common or recreation ground, or for any other purpose whatsoever, and so that no house or any other buildings be erected on such commons or waste lands, except such lodges or other buildings as may be necessary for the maintenance or management of the said recreation ground, within a period of five years from the date of the said indenture of the 17th day of December 1868, then at the expiration of such period of five years the said Charles Telford, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall purchase, and the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower respectively, and their respective heirs and assigns, shall convey to him or them, one undivided 24th part or share of the hereditaments and premises comprised in the said indenture of the 17th day of December 1868, at or for the price or sum of 425L; and in like manner, but as a separate and independent covenant, the said Susanna Ommaney McTaggart, her executors, administrators, or assigns, shall purchase, and the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower shall convey to her or them, one other undivided 24th part or share of the said hereditaments and premises, at or for the like sum of 425L; and in like manner, but as a separate and independent covenant, the said Sarah Church, her executors, administrators, or assigns, or the said Charles Church and James McLean, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the settlement executed in contemplation of the marriage of the said James Church and Sarah Church, shall purchase, and the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower shall convey to her, them, or him, one other undivided 24th part or share of the said hereditaments and premises, at or for the like sum of 425L; and in like manner, but as a separate and independent covenant, the said Eliza Kinder, her executors, administrators, or assigns, shall purchase, and the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower shall convey to her or them, one other undivided 24th part or share of the said hereditaments and premises, at or for the like sum of 425L.

2. The provisions for purchase herein-before contained shall not interfere with the power of the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, or the survivor of them, or the heirs of such survivor, as lords or lord of the said manor, to memorialize the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, and the Metropolitan Board of Works, or the Local Board, as the case may require, to cause or authorise the said commons to be inclosed, under the provisions of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866, provided the inclosure scheme be not inconsistent with the said indenture of the 31st day of May 1869, or with the said agreement of the 10th day of July 1868, and to act in all respects not inconsistent as aforesaid as lords or lord of the said manor in relation to such inclosure.

3. If at any time within the said period of five years the dedication in manner aforesaid of the said commons and waste lands to the public shall be found to be, in the opinion of the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, or the survivor of them, impracticable; then the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, or the survivor of them, or their or his heirs or assigns, shall be at liberty to give to the respective vendors aforesaid, or the heirs, executors, or administrators of such of the said respective vendors as shall then be dead, notice in writing that the appropriation and dedication of the said commons and waste lands to the public in manner aforesaid has
