

MAKING A COMPLAINT

ABOUT ADULT SOCIAL CARE

This leaflet explains the different ways that you can make a complaint about adult social care

High Standards

We recognise that sometimes things go wrong. If they do, we want to hear your concerns.

You can expect us to take your complaints seriously and give you a full response.

But there is no such thing as a perfect service and sometimes things do go wrong. We want to hear from you if this is the case.

Adult Social Care and the National Health Service (NHS) use a single approach to deal with complaints. It is an open and transparent process that is designed to ensure that we can resolve problems with you quickly and easily. If your complaint involves both the NHS and the council, you will get one coordinated response.

Lessons learned from complaints will help to improve services for other people - we want others to benefit from your feedback and prevent similar problems occurring.

We want to listen, we want to respond, and most important of all, we want to improve the way we provide services and support to you.

With your help, we can continue to maintain our high standards.

Should you complain?

Telling us about any problems is the first step in putting matters right. Don't be afraid to comment or complain, we need to know what you think about our services, especially if they are not being delivered in the right way.

If you want to complain, please be reassured that it will not affect the way the council views you in any way and will not affect the services you receive.

If you don't want to complain, but do have comments you would like to make, you can either tell someone who works in the service you have been dealing with, or use the form on our website which can be found at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/make-a-complaint

Organisations like Healthwatch Wandsworth would also like to hear your views on our services. Further information can be found at:

Complaining on someone else's behalf

If you want to make a complaint for someone else, you may need to get their written permission for you to act on their behalf. The Complaints Team can advise you on this.

We need to know what you think about our services

How to complain

There are three ways you can make a complaint:

1 Most complaints can be resolved by discussing your problem with a member of staff. If you are unhappy about a service or the way you have been treated, please contact the member of staff you are dealing with or their manager in the first instance. Please don't be afraid to do so, it will not count against you in any way. If you know the name of the member of staff but not their telephone number, please contact us on 020 8871 7648.

2 Or you can complete an online complaint form on our website at: www.wandsworth.gov.uk/make-a-complaint

3 Or you can write to the Adults and Children's Complaints Team at:

Statutory Complaints Manager

London, SW18 2PU

Email: adultscomplaints@richmondandwandsworth.gov.uk

Phone: 020 8871 7648

Please note that the usual time limit from making a complaint is 12 months from the date that you became aware of the problem.

Complaints about health services

If your complaint concerns NHS South West London and St George's Mental Health NHS Trust, we can pass your complaint on to them, or you can get in touch with the trust yourself. Their details are:

Chief Executive

Trust Headquarters

South West London and St George's Mental Health NHS Trust

Springfield University Hospital

15 Springfield Drive

London, Sw17 0YF

Phone: 020 3513 6150

Email: complaints@swlstg.nhs.uk

If your complaint concerns St. George's Hospital, St. John's Therapy Centre, Queen Mary's Hospital Outpatients, wards and the community services, we can pass your complaint on to them, or you can get in touch with St. George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust yourself. Their details are:

Complaints and Improvements Department

London, SW17 0QT

Phone: 020 8725 1609

Email: complaints.compliments@stgeorges.nhs.uk

If your complaint is about both Adult Social Care and NHS issues, then please contact either the council, using one of the three options listed on page 7, or the NHS and we will work together to give you a combined response.

How will we deal with your complaint?

Early resolution

Telling us about any problems is the first step in putting matters right. Don't be afraid to comment or complain, we need to know what you think about our services, especially if they are not being delivered in the right way.

Next steps

If an early resolution has not been possible, your concerns will then be logged as a formal complaint and acknowledged within three working days. We will make every effort to resolve it quickly and effectively.

We will appoint someone to investigate your complaint and they, or a member of the Complaints Team, will contact you to agree with you the best way to reach a satisfactory outcome.

We will:

- Go through the reasons for your complaint, identifying each aspect of the complaint, to make sure that we understand your concerns properly. We would normally do this by phone, but we are able to meet you if that suits you better.
- Agree a complaint 'plan' if necessary, including how we will investigate your complaint and the time it will take. Our aim is to complete most complaints within 25 working days, but some complaints may take longer to resolve.
- Ask you what you would like to happen as a result of your complaint and tell you if we think this is realistic.
- Ask you how you wish to be kept informed about the progress of your complaint, and make sure we contact you regularly – this can be by phone, letter, email or through a third party such as an advocacy or support service.

What happens if you are still not satisfied?

If you feel your concerns have not been resolved, we will consider your reasons and investigate further if necessary until we are able to reach a final agreed resolution or agree no further progress can be made. You will be involved in every step.

What help can you get?

You can get independent advice from Citizens Advice Wandsworth. They can also help you draft your complaint.

Phone: 0800 278 7833

Website: www.cawandsworth.org

Making yourself heard

An advocate is someone who supports you and helps you to explain what you want. They help you to ensure that your views are heard, so that your problems can be sorted out. They can support you in any meetings and discuss with you the decision that the council or NHS makes about your complaint. An advocate can be someone who is specially trained for this job or a member of your family, a friend or neighbour, or just someone you feel comfortable with.

If you need an independent advocate, please contact the Complaints Team at adultscomplaints@richmondandwandsworth.gov.uk or call 020 8871 7648

Other help

You can also get in touch with your local Councillor or Member of Parliament, who will contact us on your behalf. You can do this in person, by phone, by letter or by email. You can find their contact details on our website at www.wandsworth.gov.uk/yourcouncillors

What can you do if you are not satisfied with the council's final response?

We will send you a full and final response at the end of our investigations into your complaint. If at that stage you are still dissatisfied, you can ask the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman. The Ombudsman will consider any complaint you have made and give you their views.

The Ombudsman will usually ask that you use the council's complaints procedure first and will only investigate complaints that are considered to be about maladministration – that is, inefficient or unfair administration.
